Born in Invercargill on 4 December 1956, Elaine was proud of her roots.

Elaine was the beloved daughter of George and Jenny, and one of four children: Raymond, Trish, Nolene, and Elaine.

On 19 May 1973, Elaine married her loving husband, Boof.

Elaine enjoyed sewing and patchwork, cooking and baking, gardening, and walking her dogs.

She dearly loved her golden retrievers, who brought her so much happiness and companionship.

F@#K!!

Her sister-in-law, Karen, was like a sister to her. Her son-in-law, Billy, and daughter-in-law, Annie, were also a huge part of her life and deeply loved.

Elaine had three children, Jendi, Jade, and Shay, whom she adored.

Her six grandsons meant the world to her: Levi, Shaquille, Josh, Keahn, Soul, and Izayah. She was also a much-loved great-grandmother to Niwa, Chicago, and Nui.

A member of the Otatara Bowling Club, Elaine found great enjoyment in lawn bowls.

Cancer may have taken her body, but it never took who she was. It did not take her generosity, her warmth, or the love she poured into her family. That love lives on in all of us.
