Committal

Thank you Lord

I didn't come here
To ask you for anything.
Oh, I just came to say,
Thank you, Lord.
You've answered my many prayers
That I forgot to thank you for.
Oh, I just came to say,
Thank you, Lord.

Maybe tomorrow,
There'll be sadness and sorrow,
And a thousand teardrops may fall.
But until I face tomorrow's tasks,
I have no special favour to ask.
Oh, I just came to say, thank you, Lord.
Oh, I just came to say, thank you, Lord.

Old Rugged Cross

On a hill far away
Stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suffering and shame, and I love that old cross
Where the dearest and best for a world of lost sinners was slain.

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down.
I'll cling to the old rugged cross
And exchange it someday for a crown.

To that old rugged cross I will ever be true,
Its shame and reproach gladly bear.
Then He'll call me someday to my home far away,
Where His glory forever I'll share.

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross
Till my trophies at last I lay down.

I'll cling to the old rugged cross
and exchange it someday for a crown.

I'll cling to the old rugged cross
and exchange it someday for a crown.
