Trish's Life

Born in Invercargill on the 18th October 1950 to Jim and Margaret Peebles.

Grew up in Clifton with her sisters Jocelyn, Sharon, Jeannie and the late Malcolm.

Moved to Wallacetown in 1975 where she lived for 50 years and raised her 3 girls Sarah, Laura and Olivia and became a valued member of the Wallacetown community.

Her interests included reading, knitting, playing the piano, steampunk, spending her time with family and friends, being involved with the local church, and various community support groups.

Patricia was an adventurer, she flew planes, featured in the Southland Times for swimming at Oreti Beach in the middle of winter in her bikini, and was always up for a dance and a party.

In 2015 Patricia became Grandma to Emilia, her greatest joy.
